

GENERAL ELECTION
 NOV. 6, 1973
 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Shall sections 91, 93, 95, 183, 99 and 209 of the Constitution be amended so as to (1) abolish the elective office of Superintendent of Public Instruction and provide for the election of a State Board of Education, consisting of seven members whose terms of office shall be four years and whose duties and qualifications shall be prescribed by law. One member shall be elected on a nonpartisan ballot from each of seven districts established by law. The terms of the members shall be staggered as provided by law. Beginning the first Monday in January 1976 the state board shall appoint a superintendent of public instruction to act as executive officer and serve at the pleasure of the board, at such salary and allowances as may be fixed by the board. The board may remove the superintendent for causes prescribed by law; (2) permit sheriffs to succeed themselves or to act as deputies for succeeding terms; (3) abolish the elective offices of railroad commissioner and provide that the General Assembly shall provide, by general law, for the necessary regulation and supervision of railroads operating within the Commonwealth, and, on the expiration of the terms of commissioners elected in November 1971, for the exercise of any authority granted in the Constitution to the railroad commissioner.
